ALMA MATER

At Riverside we had our joys,
A happy group of girls and boys,
We'll have these moments to remember.
The quiet walks, the noisy fun,
The football games we should have won,
We'll have these moments to remember.
Though summer turns to winter,
and the present disappears,
The moments we were glad to share
will echo through the years.
When other nights and other days
May find us gone our separate ways,
We'll have these moments to remember.

WE'VE ALWAYS LOOKED MAR-VE-LOUS!

The image is a black and white photograph of a young woman with short hair, wearing a light-colored, short-sleeved dress. She is sitting cross-legged on a dark wooden bench. Behind her is a light-colored, possibly sandy or gravelly ground. To the left, there are some low-lying plants or bushes. The entire scene is enclosed within a circular frame. To the right of the circle, the word "NINETEEN" is written in large, bold, block letters, stacked vertically. Below it, the words "EIGHTYSIX" are also written in large, bold, block letters, also stacked vertically. The font used for the text is a thick, geometric style.

PERSONAL REFLECTIONS

As the year draws to a close and the deadlines come to an end, I hope and pray you will be proud today and always of the 1986 yearbook. This year has been full of excitement, we as a staff hope we have captured a little bit of that excitement which rolls through the hallways of Riverside. Much time, dedication, hard work, and love have gone into each page.

As editor I can not take any of the credit for the 1986 yearbook. For one person can not create a yearbook alone. I would like to say a special thanks from the entire staff to Mrs. Sandra Dodd, our advisor, whose love, support, and sense of humor have single handedly made this book possible, and to Mr. Johnny Lovier who has put up with our unorganized staff and helped us make a better book. I would also like to thank each member of the staff, but especially my Co-Editors Lisa Thomas and Leonard Humble for all their great support.

Sincerely yours,

Cindy Todd

YES, WE'LL
"RISE AGAIN!"
